Week I	When first introduced, the farmers in Prussia hated potatoes and refused to plant them, as they don't have any smell or taste. King Frederick wanted to change this image of potatoes. So, he ordered his staff to plant a 'Royal Garden' of potatoes and guard it heavily. Seeing the admiration and security given to these tubers, local farmers started stealing the plant from Royal Garden. The guards too pretended not to notice this, as per King's orders. This reverse psychology made potatoes a well-established crop in Prussia.
